

HOME Program  20th Anniversary
Door Knocker Awards

Honorable Mention

REACHING UNDERSERVED POPULATIONS

Peoria, Illinois
New Hope Apartments

Adjacent to downtown, the New Hope Apartments project is a 79-unit acquisition and restoration of a former YWCA and provides permanent supportive housing for single, disabled, and homeless adults.

Contact: Ross Black, Assistant Director of Planning & Growth Management, City of Peoria, 309-494-8601, rblack@ci.peoria.il.us

Seattle, Washington
McDermott Place

Serving underserved populations, this 75-unit mixed-use new construction project is located in the Lake City neighborhood of northeast Seattle and houses the homeless, including veterans and the disabled.

Contact: Julie Moore, Communications Director, City of Seattle, 206-684-0604, juliemoore@seattle.gov

Wichita, Kansas
Self-Sufficiency Through HOMEownership

Reaching underserved populations, this program provides downpayment, closing costs, and rehabilitation assistance to families who participate in the housing authority's family self-sufficiency program, preparing to purchase their own homes.

Contact: Mary Vaughn, Director, City of Wichita, 316-462-3795, mkvaughn@wichita.gov

PROMOTING LONG-TERM AFFORDABILITY

State of Vermont
Cottage, Pine, Williams and Dorr

Providing long-term affordability, this 10-unit permanently affordable rental project is a combination of acquisition, rehabilitation and historically sensitive new construction on scattered sites in three neighborhoods in downtown Rutland.

Contact: Ann Karlene Kroll, Director of Grants Management, State of Vermont, 802-828-5225, annkarlene.kroll@state.vt.us

Boston, Massachusetts
Blessed Sacrament Campus

Providing long-term affordability, this 80-unit mixed-income development provides housing opportunities for residents in the Jamaica Plain neighborhood of the City.

Contact: Mary Moran, Operations Manager, City of Boston, 617-635-0409, Mmoran.dnd@cityofboston.gov

BUILDING CHDO CAPACITY

Commonwealth of Massachusetts
CHDO Capacity Building

At the beginning of the HOME Program, Massachusetts began a CHDO capacity building program partnering with the Community Economic Development Assistant Corporation.

Contact: Catherine Racer, Associate Director, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, 617-573-1322, catherine.racer@state.ma.us

PRODUCING SUSTAINABLE HOUSING

Seattle, Washington Stone Way Apartments

Stone Way Apartments is 70-units of affordable housing and commercial space on a busy corner in the Wallingford neighborhood of the City and is LEED Silver certified.

Contact: Julie Moore, Communications Director, City of Seattle, 206-684-0604, juliemoore@seattle.gov

Somerville, Massachusetts Visiting Nurses Senior Living Community

Adjacent to an independent living project for seniors, this 99-unit project provides sustainable housing for frail elderly and those with disabilities through a service-enriched approach on a parcel which was a former brownfield site.

Contact: Evelyn Persoff, Housing Grants Manager,
City of Somerville, 617-625-6600, ext. 2585, EPersoff@somervillema.gov

Berkeley, California Oxford Plaza

Located in downtown Berkeley, this 97-unit rental project is being recognized for producing sustainable housing for working families and those with special needs.

Contact: Amy Davidson, Senior Management Analyst, City of Berkeley, 510-981-5406, adavidson@cityofberkeley.info

Commonwealth of Massachusetts Thankful Chase Pathway

Located in Harwich, MA in the middle of Cape Cod, Thankful Chase Pathway is a 12-unit affordable housing project with LEED Platinum certification.

Contact: Catherine Racer, Associate Director, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, 617-573-1322, catherine.racer@state.ma.us

Commonwealth of Massachusetts Trolley Square

Open in 2006, Trolley Square is a green building, transit based, mixed-use development on a major transportation spine in northern Cambridge.

Contact: Catherine Racer, Associate Director, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, 617-573-1322, catherine.racer@state.ma.us

State of New Hampshire Manchester Transitional Living Program

Completed in 2009, this 12-unit transitional housing project provides affordable units to youth aging out of the foster care system and has LEED Platinum certification.

Contact: Mary Anzmann, HOME Program Manager,
State of New Hampshire, 603-310-9226, manzmann@nhfa.org

Elizabeth, New Jersey 205 First Street Senior Housing Development

Located in the Elizabethport neighborhood, this 31-unit project was developed on a former brownfield site and serves low-income seniors. This is the first affordable senior residence in New Jersey to achieve LEED Gold certification.

Contact: Susan Ucci, Program Director, City of Elizabeth 908-352-8450, succi@elizaethnj.org

State of Rhode Island Sandywoods Farm

Located in rural Tiverton, RI, Sandywoods Farm is a unique community which includes 50 rental units, 24 homeownership units, gallery/studio space, farmland and dedicated open space.

Contact: Carol Ventura, Development Director,
State of Rhode Island, 401-457-1129, cventura@rhodeislandhousing.org

