

Section 2 of this training provides an overview of the PIT count planning process and timeline.

Early, organized, and structured planning is essential for executing a comprehensive and efficient PIT count. Involving key partners, implementing an organizing structure and timeline, and using community providers and volunteers appropriately can be the deciding factors in the success of a PIT count.